

YALE WORKS IN A RAIN STORM

Changes in the Cornell Backfield Now Seem Certain For Saturday.

PENN. HAS TROUBLES

By Sun Leased Wire.
New Haven, Conn., Nov. 12.—In a drizzling rain, the only rainy day since the first week of practice, the Yale varsity football team had its last work in New Haven before the final game and will leave tomorrow afternoon for Auburn, to remain until time to go into Boston Saturday.

With four exceptions the Yale squad was in perfect condition. The exceptions are Dally, Vaughan, Haines and Logan, end rushes, except the first. Of these men Logan and Vaughan are pretty sure to play a few minutes in the Harvard game. But Haines' knee is so badly injured that he will not be able to play again and Dally's shoulder is so bad that he may not be able to make the trip and enter the contest.

There was no scrimmage for the 'varsity in the practice this afternoon. There was a long signal drill while the gates were closed, and after the gates were opened, there was only individual work for the 'varsity.

Changes at Cornell.

Ithaca, N. Y., Nov. 12.—Changes in the make-up of the Cornell backfield for the last game of the season with Penna., were regarded as not unlikely, after the scrimmage this afternoon. The Cornell backfield, which was regarded as one of the features of the game against Chicago, was sent to the infirmary. The coaches refused to state whether he would get out shortly or not. Captain Tyndeman went back to left halfback and played a good game, though it is not likely that he will be in against the Quakers, unless he recovers.

The surprising showing of Wood, the last year's quarterback, in the past few days, makes it an open question if Owen will be able to beat him out.

Coach Larkin ordered Crosby and Teague, the 'varsity ends, to get into the game again, and neither seemed to show any ill effects.

Neither Monk nor Weekes, the 'varsity tackles, were in the line-up. Leventy and Stude getting the positions. The latter has not played since the Harvard game. The coaches will give him his last chance this week to play left tackle.

While O'Connor and Donnan were allowed to stand by, Coach Reed told Seagrave to keep on the side line.

The scrimmage today was the 'varsity against the scrubs and then against the freshmen. There was no scoring but the 'varsity showed pretty good form.

Penn Team's Hard Luck.

Philadelphia, Pa., Nov. 12.—Misfortune followed the Penna. football team. The latest occurred this afternoon when "Big Bob" Lambertson was forced to retire on account of a dislocated shoulder. Lambertson fell with his right shoulder bent under him and after the play was taken from the field by Mike Murphy.

Scarlett gave the ends a long drill today in running down under kicks. The quakers seem to be weak in this particular and were given some valuable instructions.

Although the 'varsity succeeded in making two touchdowns against the scrubs the work of the backfield in advancing the ball was anything but good.

TO OPEN NEW TRACK

New York, Nov. 12.—(SPL)—Manager Winn is hustling to get the Jurez track ready for the opening, December 1. Personal inspection developed that the grandstand roof has just been completed and the other buildings are under way. The track rails will soon be completed and 600 stalls will be ready for horses in a few days. The track company that will run care direct to the track from El Paso is laying rails with rapidity. It is said that the new track will cost nearly $800,000.

Battling Nelson Agrees to Fight Freddy Welsh 45-Rounds

Bat. Says Englishman its First Class Boxer But Can't Last in Long Fight.

By Sun Leased Wire.

New York, Nov. 12.—If Battling Nelson means what he says he will agree to a match of 45 rounds with Freddie Welsh of England for the lightweight championship of the world.

Nelson, who refereed a 16-round fight between Bert Keyes and Matty Baldwin at Schenectady, N. Y., Tuesday night, announced that he had decided to take Welsh on and that as soon as the Englishman arrives here next month a match can be arranged.

"Welsh is a first class boxer," says Nelson, "but that lets him out. If we fight he'll probably run many miles around the inside of the ring to keep out of harm's way, at the same time jabbing out the points for which he is famous. But in a 45-round battle he can't keep running forever and I'll finally land him. I paid no attention to his challenges in the past because I did not think he had a right to fight for the world's title, but now that he is coming here as England's champion, lightweight, he can have a fight under the conditions I name as the title holder."

Welsh, who cleaned up $11,000 on his mill with Summers, will sail from England about December 1. He is quoted as saying as soon as he reaches this city he will post $5,000 as a forfeit to bind a match with Nelson and will agree to any fair terms.

Promoter Coffroth, when he learned that a Nelson-Welsh fight was possible, declared that the Colma club would offer after the match with a handsome offer.

Although Harvard's big score was made against Cornell greenbacks Saturday, the Crimson's chance with Yale appears much more gloomy than a month ago. Harvard's offense was very powerful when plowing the line and the ends and halves were swift on the long and short forward pass and outside kick. Yale is playing the same old orthodox game again this season and Brown players say the Ell machine has nothing on Harvard in general strength.

22 balls and Kling 14. The men are to play 20 balls a night for four consecutive nights. Hueston played in excellent form and led from the start.

Walter McNally, who last season pitched for the Youngstown team in the O. & P. league and the Buhl Independent, has received an offer from Manager Doyle of the Dallas, Texas, team to pitch the coming year. McNally is waiting to hear from Manager Hughey Jennings before replying.

Howlers in New Castle, Sharon, Youngstown, Niles and Warren are to organize a trolley bowling league shortly. Teams will be placed in all of the towns mentioned and in order to make it a six-club organization Youngstown will be represented by two teams. ## CHAMPIONSHIP GAME SUNDAY

Canton and Simpson's Tigers Getting Ready For Hard Contest.

BOTH WORKING HARD

The football game Sunday for the championship of the city promises to be one of the hardest fought gridiron contests ever seen in Canton.

The Canton team is determined to win the game and the Simpson Tigers are just as determined, and when the brawn and muscle of the twenty-two men meet, something will have to be done.

The Tigers have been at work every night this week. Tuesday night it was too wet to practice outdoors and Coach Clarke gave the team a thorough blackboard talk on play formations. Wednesday night the team had the best practice of the season.

"Speed" is the cry of Coach Clarke and his team will rely on tricks and passes to offset the superior weight of the Canton team. Every one of the Simpson players is "working his head off" in preparation for the game.

The Simpson team and the officials will start from Simpson's cigar store at 1 o'clock Sunday, and the game will be called promptly at 2 o'clock in order that darkness will not interfere with the game.

The Canton team has been hard at work this week and all the members of the team are requested to report for practice Thursday night at 7:30 o'clock, respectively of the weather.

Notice Munter, Tigers

The Natchell Tigers' football season closes November 23, and as the Natchell's have the rest of schedule full, we find it impossible to play the Munter's. We are after the city championship and have clear title to it as we have defeated all teams at that weight, 135 pounds, in the city championship. As to the game of 50, September 26, and it is not necessary for us to play a team that is beaten once, the second time. As to the game which they claim we forfeited, I, I, we cancelled the game on Tuesday, previous to that Sunday, giving the team ample time to get another game. If by claiming a game that was never played entitles the Munter to the city championship at 135 pounds, we cannot see it. The Natchell Tigers play the Edgar Tigers, and in case the former team wins, they have the undoubted 135-pound championship of the city.

(Signed) Manager Dillman.

PLAYERS EXONERATED

Washington, Nov. 12.—Players of both teams were exonerated of all responsibility of the death of young Archer Christian, who succumbed to injuries received Saturday in the football match between the University of Virginia and Georgetown university here. The death of the Virginia player was declared by the coroner's jury tonight to be purely an accident. The verdict, however, censured the local police for their action in removing relatives and friends of the young man when he was being removed from the field.

WILL MEET TONIGHT TO ARRANGE FOR GAME

Pan-Americans and Monarchs Have to Play Third Game for 150 Pound Championship.

The arrangements for the third game between the Pan-Americans and the Monarchs will be made at the Morning News office Thursday night, when the managers of the two teams will have a meeting. Each of the teams has a game to its credit and a third is necessary to decide the 150-pound championship of the city.

At the meeting Thursday night the officials, time and place of game and the line-ups of both teams will be decided upon and given by each manager to the other.

The manager of the Pan-Americans would like to meet Farnum of the Nuttall Indians, to arrange a game. Pan-Americans are to report for practice Thursday night as some hard games remain to be played on the schedule.

SPECIAL CARS FOR CUBS

May Live in Luxury on Their Spring Training Trip.

Chicago, Nov. 12.—President Murphy, of the Cubs, said today that he was negotiating two private cars to be used by his club while touring the south on its training trip next spring. He figures that a single car, containing state rooms and a dining section, will house the squad comfortably in any hotel, while the other will minimize the dangers which usually attend the rapid changes from one hotel to another.

WELCOME! PETE

Pete Porter, who played every position on the New Castle baseball team last season, and who was a star in a now a full-fledged sporting editor. Now, Pete, old boy, you will learn that ball players are not the only professionals who have troubles. Here's to you, Pete, and may you lead the typewriter league in battling and fielding. Listen, Pete, pay the attention to the mutter who threaten to lick you for printing stories about them. The guy who is going to hand you a couple of uppercuts never talks about it until the goods are delivered. When you see a vicious-looking individual making for your den, don't get frightened. He is one of the kind that don't bite. But if a quiet-looking chap saunters in and wants to know a thing or two, get on the other side of the desk first and then tell him, but have a paper-weight or a paste-pot in each hand. He's the jolly joker who will get you before you hand over "3." Shake, Pete; you're welcome. The league that most ball players believe is composed of boneheads and knuckers—M. F. Bowers, in McKeesport Times.

JENNINGS A LAWYER

Argues Cases Same as He Managed Pennant Winning Tigers.

Hughie Jennings, leader of the conquering Tigers, has turned from the rule book to the law book, from the coaching lines to the legal bar. That word "bar" appeals strongly to Hughie. He was first admitted to the bar when only a young ballplayer and joggled the crackers and cheese off it.

Nowadays he makes no breaks and never gets absent-minded enough to ask the judge for a couple of gloves. Earnest, conscientious, determined practitioner is Attorney Jennings, carrying into the field of law the same pluck, ginger and animation that won three Tiger flags. He'll be a Choate or a Daniel Webster some day—nothing to it.

Jennings is doing this winter law work at Scranton, Pa., the same being the home town of the frolicked leader of the Detroit bunch.

"BATHHOUSE JOHN"

Has a Good Chance to Land Western League Franchise.

Chicago, Nov. 12.—"Bathhouse John" Coughlin, leader of the notorious "First Ward Ball," the annual orgy is said to be after a fair chance that he will get it. Coughlin owns a deer park near Colorado Springs, and it is his intention to purchase the Pueblo franchise and move the grounds to his park. George Davis, a White Sox veteran, appears to be his only competitor, and Davis cannot command the money or influence Coughlin can swing. Coughlin would probably pay small attention to salary and other limits, and it is thought he will make Davis his manager if he secures the franchise.

MADDEN SAYS JEFF NEEDS SOME FIGHTS

Declares the Champion Cannot Get Back Into Old Form.

HIS CHANCES SLIM

By Sun Leased Wire.
New York, Nov. 12.—Wm. Madden, who is now following in the footsteps of Muldoon as a "physical culturist" and has a health report not far from this city, says that Jeffries' chances for beating Johnson will be rather slim unless he indulges in some real fights with second and third raters before he enters the ring with the negro.

Madden argues that the mere reduction of weight by constant exercise cannot fit a pugilist, after four or five years of idleness, and that there is no way to test one's stamina, except in a hard bout of 10 or 15 rounds, where it is necessary to give and take punishment. In addition to bringing into play all kinds of ring tactics.

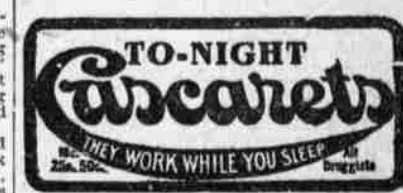

Madden is a firm believer in Jeffries, but he is inclined to doubt the boiler-maker's ability to show the wonderful form of eight years ago.

Langford Champion.

Regarding Stanley Ketchel as a heavy-weight, Sam Langford, has proclaimed himself middleweight champion of the world. Langford's manager, Joseph Woodman, sends word that Langford can easily make 135 pounds, the middle-weight limit, and that he stands ready to defend the title against all comers. Woodman declares that Papke has a legitimate claim to the title and that Langford is ready to meet him to decide the question. Papke, who is willing to fight Ketchel again if the latter will return to the middleweight class, was urged to meet Langford some time ago but he promptly drew the color line. For that reason few sporting men believe that Langford can secure a bout with Papke.

Jack Hendrick and Claude Varnell, of Ft. Wayne, have a room on the first floor of a hotel. They were both in the recent hotel fire in Ft. Wayne and barely escaped with their lives. It is now impossible to get them more than one night above the office. In order to avoid any chance of conflagration they spend very little time in their rooms.

Jack Hendrick's hope of managing the Dayton club vanished when he heard that Pumpsie Love had been secured for the job. Jack was offered the management of the Macon club today, but could not be more than one night above the office. In order to avoid any chance of conflagration they spend very little time in their rooms.
